Aruna Joshi
MAHARASHTRA

Hi my name is Aruna Joshi - a Dot Mandala artist and refer myself 'An Enthusiastic Artyruna'.

As the name says, I'm an enthusiastic person with high energy levels who believes that I should grab every single opportunity to learn and explore every art. I was in search of myself wanting to know where I belong. Hence while exploring myself I learnt various artworks. I started to learn Warli painting, calligraphy, Acrylic painting, Water colour painting, Card making, Dot Mandala painting.

I started making Dot Mandala painting because it allows me to share my deepest thoughts and ideas with others in a way that connects us all in a way no one else can do. It's like making connections with strangers-but more personal!

I hope to inspire you with my work!

Jaspreet Mohan Singh

UTTAR PRADESH

teaching experience of 27 years in commercial art and 10 years as an administrator, prefer to work in series. My series 'UPSURGE' is an example of that. I found ideas from my personal life and situations around me. Generally, I paint in an Abstract expressionistic style. Teaching is my passion from the very beginning.

For that, I got the best teacher National Award from N.C.E.R.T. (1998) I am also the founder of the ECSTASY group of Artists. Two of my paintings are signed by the Former President of India Dr. A.P.J. Abdul Kalam (2003). With the grace of God, I have bagged more than 452 prestigious International and National awards Online and off-line. My journey of teaching and painting will continue with my whole life.

I work mostly in abstract style my love for realism and traditional style time and again, prefer to work in series. There are certain situations and ideas which impose themselves so much that it becomes hard to come out of them immediately. So it becomes a series of a particular style or idea to get rid from it. Then I switch over to random Subjects temporarily only to return to my main track. My series 'UPSURGE' is an example of that.
